Term	Definition
Absence/absent	A student is deemed to be absent from the University if s/he is not engaging or participating satisfactorily in the study activity for which s/he is registered as a student. Student absence is not necessarily linked to the absence of a physical on-campus presence, but may be so linked if a student is required to attend classes, seminars, tutorials, online activities or other group or individual meetings.
Abstract	A brief but comprehensive summary of the contents of the thesis.
Academic and honorary staff	Members of staff of the University holding a contract of employment either as a member of teaching and research staff in the University or holding honorary status (awarded to persons who have rendered appreciable public service to the University).

	when the original assessment was disrupted or for individual students where special circumstances apply.

date	study. Students are registered at the anniversary date and so pay annual tuition fees from this date. The anniversary date

marking	of Examiners until near the end of the assessment process

Assessment	The set of processes which measure the outcomes of students' learning in terms of knowledge acquired, understanding developed and skills gained. These processes of measurement are necessarily diverse, in order to measure different aspects of learning in an appropriate manner, e.g. by examination in an exam hall, online, take-home, and with different specifications, e.g. open or closed book, specified time frame, and by coursework, which include essays, tutorial participation, oral presentations, practical, lab work etc. Assessment includes attendance and satisfactory completion, (where both result in a 'pass') as well as other diagnostic, formative and summative methods.
Assessment	Where the student takes some or all of the assessment for a only	course but is not required to attend classes, seminars, tutorials, online activities or other group or individual meetings for that course. This is currently recorded as "Exam only" on the student record.

Assistant Supervisor	For postgraduate research students, the role of the Assistant Supervisor is intended to be considerably more limited than that of the Principal Supervisor in terms of responsibility, but in some cases the Assistant Supervisor may have day to day involvement in the student's supervision. Assistant Supervisors may be appointed to provide (where relevant) complementary expertise, such as specialised knowledge of a particular technique.
A44	See also "Principal Supervisor", "Co-Supervisor" and "Lead Co-Supervisor".

	This is also known as "auditing" a course.
Co-Supervisor	For postgraduate research students, the Principal and Co-
	Supervisor have equal roles and responsibilities, but the Principal Supervisor tends to deal with the administrative
