Term	Definition
Absence/absent	A student is deemed to be absent from the University if they are not engaging or participating satisfactorily in the study activity for which they are registered as a student. Student absence is not necessarily linked to the absence of a physical on-campus presence, but may be so linked if a student is required to attend classes, seminars, tutorials, online activities or other group or individual meetings.
Abstract	A brief but comprehensive summary of the contents of the thesis.
Academic and honorary staff	Members of staff of the University holding a contract of employment either as a member of teaching and research staff in the University or holding honorary status (awarded to persons who have rendered appreciable public service to the University).
Academic misconduct	Any type of misconduct that occurs in relation to a formal academic exercise. This includes plagiarism , collusion , falsification , deceit , cheating and impersonation .
Additional class information	This is information on the teaching arrangements of a course other than the contact teaching time, class hours, times, or locations.
Aegrotat degrees	A degree without classification, awarded in exceptional circumstances when a student has been unable to take their assessment or examinations because of illness or circumstances beyond their control. Aegrotat degrees are awarded on the understanding that had the candidate been well, they would have obtained the award.
Alternative assessment	These test the same learning outcomes as the original assessment but may use a different assessment method, e.g. online assessment or take-home examination compared with an invigilated exam. They may be used for a whole course when the original assessment was disrupted or for individual students where special circumstances apply.

Anniversary date	The date upon which the student starts the next year of their study. Students are registered at the anniversary date and so pay annual tuition fees from this date. The anniversary date takes into account any interruption of study applicable.
Anonymous marking	Students' identities are not revealed to markers or to the Board of Examiners until near the end of the assessment process when anonymity ends and a check is made.
Applicant	A person who has formally submitted an application for admission to the University, where the application is still active, and the individual is not yet a student.
Assessment	The set of processes which measure the outcomes of students' learning in terms of knowledge acquired, understanding developed and skills gained. These processes of measurement are necessarily diverse, in order to measure different aspects of learning in an appropriate manner, e.g. by examination in an exam hall, online, take-home, and with different specifications, e.g. open or closed book, specified time frame, and by coursework, which include essays, tutorial participation, oral presentations, practical, lab work etc. Assessment includes attendance and satisfactory completion, (where both result in a 'pass') as well as other diagnostic, formative and summative methods.
Assessment criteria	The criteria against which students work' which has been submitted for assessment is formally assessed. These will align with relevant learning outcomes for the course and map onto the relevant Common Marking Scheme.
Assessment only	Where the student takes some or all of the assessment for a course but is not required to attend classes, seminars, tutorials, online activities or other group or individual meetings for that course. This is currently recorded as "Exam only" on the student record.
Assessment regulations	www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/academic-services/staff/assessment/assessment-regulations
Assistant Supervisor	For postgraduate research students, the role of the Assistant Supervisor is intended to be considerably more limited than that of the Principal Supervisor in terms of responsibility, but in some cases the Assistant Supervisor may have day to day involvement in the student's supervision. Assistant Supervisors may be appointed to provide (where relevant) complementary expertise, such as specialised knowledge of a particular technique. See also " Principal Supervisor ", " Co-Supervisor " and " Lead Co-Supervisor ".
Attendance date	The date by which students are required to be in attendance at the University e.g. Induction Week ahead of Semester 1 commencement.

Authorised interruption of studies	Where a student is temporarily unable to study they may apply for an interruption of studies, during which they conduct no studies at the University. Students re-engage with their studies following their return from an interruption.

-B-

Term	Definition
Board of Examiners	A body consisting of University staff and external examiners where appropriate, with membership approved by the relevant College whose role is to take an overview of each student's academic performance on a relevant course or programme based primarily on assessment results, and to make a final academic judgement on the appropriate outcome, e.g. on progression or the award of degree, diploma or certificate. www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/academic-services/staff/assessment/boards-examiners
Board of Studies	The committee in Schools which undertakes scrutiny of curriculum development proposals and where local decisions about courses and programmes are made.
Borderline	Defined as marks from two percentage points below the class or grade boundary up to the boundary itself. Boards of Examiners must use the University borderline definition and must not set and use a different definition.

-C-

Term	Definition
Cheating	An example of academic misconduct. It is any attempt to obtain or to give assistance in an examination or an assessment without due acknowledgement. This includes submitting work which is not one's own.
Co-requisite of course	A co-requisite course to 'Course X' must be undertaken in the same Semester or Academic Year (as specified) as 'Course X'.
Classification	This is the grading scheme used to identify the level of achievement of an undergraduate honours degree. The class of degree can be First class honours (1st), Second class honours, upper division (2.i), Second class honours, lower division (2.ii), or Third class honours (3rd).
Class only	A student attending a course on a class-only basis does not sit assessment and does not receive credit for that course. This is also known as "auditing" a course.
Co-Supervisor	For postgraduate research students, the Principal and Co-Supervisor have equal roles and responsibilities, but the

	Principal Supervisor tends to deal with the administrative aspects of supervision. The supervisory arrangement of “Principal plus Co-Supervisor” is normally chosen when the student’s proposal involves interdisciplinary research. See also “Principal Supervisor”, “Lead Co-Supervisor”, “Assistant Supervisor”.
Collusion	A form of academic misconduct. It is an unauthorised and unattributed collaboration with other people (including fellow students) of students in a piece of assessed work.
Common Marking Schemes	The Common Marking Schemes are standard marking schemes which are used when reporting students’ assessment results. For every piece of summative assessed work, students will be assigned a mark against the relevant Common Marking Scheme. Separate schemes exist for undergraduate and postgraduate assessment, as well as for medical and veterinary degrees. www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/student-administration/exams/regulations/common-marking-scheme
Compulsory course	Courses which a student must take as part of their degree programme, as specified in the Degree Programme Table in the Degree Regulations and Programmes of Study www.drps.ed.ac.uk/
Concession	Where the requirements of University regulations are varied by those with specific authority to do so, e.g. the Curriculum and Student Progression Committee (CSPC) and relevant College committees or officers. Colleges may devolve the operation of some concessions to Schools.
Contact teaching time	This is the average normal time per week in which the student can expect direct teaching contact with staff, for example lectures, dissertation or project supervision, practicals, studio hours, labs or tutorials.
Core course	This is a course that must be taken and passed in order to progress to the next stage of study within a specific degree programme.
Course	Each year of study of undergraduate and taught postgraduate programmes is composed of courses. A course is a unit of teaching and learning formally offered within the University, which carries credit expressed in credit points (see http://www.drps.ed.ac.uk/) and which may contribute to a University award (certificate, diploma or degree). A course will have: a course code (recorded on the University’s Student Record system), one or more components of assessment, a specified credit value, a specified credit level, a named Course Organiser, and an identified host department/school/teaching organisation.
Course code	The unique alphanumeric code assigned to each course. The course code is listed in the individual course entry, beside the course title.

Course Organiser	A member of staff whose remit varies according to local School organisation, but in outline the Course Organiser is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • general course management; • assessment-related activities; • advising and supporting students on course-related matters; • monitoring and reviewing courses
Credit level	The Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) credit level identifies the level of the outcome of learning achieved (see http://www.drps.ed.ac.uk/).
Credit points	The University adheres to the Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) within which credit points are used to quantify the volume of learning achieved. Two SCQF credit points are equivalent to one point in the European Credit and Transfer System (ECTS).
Credits awarded on aggregate	Credit can be awarded for a limited number of failed courses in honours years or taught postgraduate programmes when a student has met specific conditions. An example of this is when all the marks for the taught components of the relevant year of the programme (120 credits) are available, if the student has achieved pass marks (40%) in at least 80 credits and has an overall average of 40% or more over the full 120 credits, then they may be awarded credits on aggregate for the failed courses. Not all degree programmes permit the award of credit on aggregate.

-D-

Term	Definition
Deceit	Dishonesty in order to achieve advantage. For example, by resubmitting one's own previously assessed work without acknowledgement.
Degree examination	These are summative examinations which count towards a University award.
Degree Programme Specification (DPS)	Each degree programme has a specification which gives a concise description of the learning outcomes and how they are demonstrated and achieved.
Degree Programme Table (DPT)	The Degree Programme Table (DPT) identifies the regulated path for a degree e.g. the compulsory and optional course options required to achieve the award. A student will follow the curriculum for a degree programme set out in the DPT.

Degree Regulations and Programmes of Study (DRPS)	The Degree Regulations and Programmes of Study (DRPS) sets out in the regulatory framework by which the University's programmes are governed, the valid courses to achieve an award (Degree Programme Table), and details of all the courses offered by the University.
Degree type	Degree programmes are based on a number of standard models. The 'Degree Type' defines in brief the model followed by individual degree programmes, e.g. 'Single Honours'. Degree Types are outlined in the General Undergraduate Degree Regulations.
Delivery period of a course	The period in which the course is actually taught (normally either Semester 1 or Semester 2, or the whole Year: both semesters).
Distance learning	A distance learning course or programme is one which is designed to be studied without the need for students to physically attend the University, unless such physical attendance is required for short periods (e.g. summer schools). This may include online learning.
Dissertation	An extended piece of scholarship in which a student has the opportunity to study in depth a topic chosen on the basis of the student's own interests, the staff available to supervise, and the feasibility of the topic proposed in the light of resources and time available. The dissertation is characterised by the depth of investigation, analysis, comprehension and critique demonstrated.
Doctorate	Doctoral degrees are designed at Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF) Level 12 and are allocated at least 540 SCQF Credit Points of which a minimum of 420 are at SCQF Level 12.
Double marking	Where a student's work is assessed by more than one marker. Double marking is a form of moderation and may be done for a sample of the students taking a course, e.g. those who are borderline for progression decisions, or for the whole course.

Term	Definition
Engagement	A student is deemed to be engaged with their studies when they are attending as required, responding in a timely manner to the needs of the programme and progressing adequately.
Equivalent course	A course of comparable credit value and level which may be substituted for or equivalent to another course in the Degree Programme Table.
Examiners (external and internal)	External Examiners are appointed from outside the University to help ensure that degrees awarded by the University are comparable in standard to those of other equivalent departments

	in appropriate universities, although their content may differ. They also ensure that the assessment system is operated equitably and fairly in respect of the treatment and classification of students. The roles, powers and responsibilities of External Examiners are set out in the External Examiners for Taught Programmes Policy Internal examiners are teaching and honorary staff of the University who teach Scottish Credit and qualification Framework level 7 to 12 courses which are awarded for credit and are listed in the Degree Regulations and Programmes of Study www.drps.ed.ac.uk/ Internal and External Examiners are members of the Board of Examiners. See Boards of Examiners.
Exclusion (see also “Withdrawal”)	The University’s action to remove an individual’s status as a student due to reasons other than completion of a programme of study. After exclusion, the individual is no longer entitled to access University resources.
Extension of study	A student may apply to be given additional time to complete their studies only under exceptional circumstances where it can be shown that unforeseen difficulties have delayed the normal progress of studies. Extensions of studies may not be requested retrospectively. A fee is chargeable for extensions of study.

Return to Top

-F-

Term	Definition
Face value mark	The mark that the work is believed to merit based solely on the content as presented.
Falsification	An attempt to present fictitious or distorted data, evidence, references, citations, or experimental results, and/or to knowingly make use of such material.
Feedback	Information that is provided to students which can enable them to review what they know, understand and can do in their studies, and to identify areas for improvement. www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/academic-services/staff/assessment/feedback www.enhancingfeedback.ed.ac.uk/
Feed-forward	Feed-forward can provide students with information they can use to make improvements to future assessments. Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the opportunity to get comments on a draft or outline, and so to take account of these in the final version;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the option of a practice test (e.g. getting feedback on how well students answered multiple-choice questions); or what has sometimes been called 'pre-emptive' feedback - a pre-exam revision seminar, or a workshop focusing on past exam papers. www.enhancingfeedback.ed.ac.uk
Fitness to practise	Some of the University of Edinburgh degree programmes are accredited by professional bodies and may have fitness for practise considerations (often referred to as “fitness to practise”). Fitness to practise is relevant in professions where safe and appropriate professional practise, conduct and competencies are distinct from academic achievement. The University, in conjunction with the professional bodies, has a duty to ensure the student is fit to practise while undertaking this training.
Formative assessment	Assessment which is designed to provide students with feedback on progress and to inform development but does not directly contribute to final results for a course.
Full-time (student)	There are a number of different definitions of “full-time student” across the sector. The Scottish Funding Council refers to a full-time course or research study which “involves the student in an average of at least 21 hours study a week, including private study, for periods of more than 24 weeks per year or, in the final year, for 24 weeks or less if the earlier years met the definition of full-time”. The University’s expectation of credit load is that a full-time undergraduate student will attain 120 credits at each stage of full-time study and that a full-time taught postgraduate masters student will attain 180 credits.

-G-

Term	Definition
Grade	The grade is an outcome for an assessment, defined by the range in the common marking schemes.
Grade descriptor	Grade descriptors provide information about how students are expected to demonstrate performance appropriate to a particular grade on the relevant Common Marking Scheme in the context of their subject area or discipline.

Return to Top

-H-

Term	Definition
Handbooks	These provide students with information about programme and course content, aims and objectives, teaching and assessment, support and other issues. They indicate what is expected of students.

Home institution	The home institution is the higher education institution where a visiting student is registered on a degree programme.

Return to Top

-I-

Term	Definition
Impersonation	The assumption of the identity of another person with intent to deceive or gain unfair advantage.
Induction week	The week before the start of teaching in Semester 1 of the academic year. A variety of events to orient and welcome new students are available. The orientation helps new students to organise their classes, acclimatise to student life, and introduce themselves to other students.
Integrated masters	This is an integrated degree programme comprising five years of undergraduate study, involving courses at Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) level 11. See the relevant Degree Programme Table for further information www.drps.ed.ac.uk/
Intercalation	The period when a student is officially suspended from studying for an academic degree in specific circumstances.
Interruption of studies	See "Authorised Interruption of Studies".

Return to Top

-J-

Term	Definition
Junior honours	The first Honours year of an Honours degree programme, normally involving courses at Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) level 9 or 10.

-L-

-------------	-------------------

Lay summary	A brief description written in non-technical language that should be easily understood by a reader lacking specific or technical knowledge of the subject area. See guidance: www.ed.ac.uk/files/atoms/files/lay_summary_in_theses.pdf
Lead Co-Supervisor	A supervisor for a postgraduate research student, where two supervisors bear equal responsibility for the student, with one of the two nominally the lead. See also " Principal Supervisor ", " Co-Supervisor ", " Assistant Supervisor ".
Learning outcomes	The stated aims and objectives for a course or programme. They outline the understanding, the skills and the knowledge that students will attain through successful completion of the course or programme.
Learning profile	This presents the recommended reasonable adjustments to be implemented so that a student is able to participate fully with their studies. The learning profile is compiled by the Student Disability Service following discussions with the student, and in some cases the student's Personal Tutor.
Leave of Absence	Leave of absence may be granted to students when they are conducting activities related to their programme of study away from Edinburgh.

Return to Top

-M-

Term	Definition
Mainstream adjustments	Adjustments that are made to increase the accessibility and inclusivity of learning and teaching for all students. Further information is available on the Institute for Academic Development website at: www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/institute-academic-development/learning-teaching/inclusive/mainstreaming
Mark	The overall percentage for a course, approved and awarded by a Board of Examiners and input to the student record.
Marker	Markers are people who mark students' work for formative or summative purposes but who are not examiners and therefore do not have membership of the Board of Examiners.
Marking schemes	See "Common Marking Schemes" .
Matriculation	Matriculation is the formal process of registering for study at the University.

Maximum period of study	This is the maximum period within which the student must have completed their programme of study, and have met the requirements for the award. The maximum period includes any concessions, extensions, authorised interruptions of study and for some research degrees, the submission period.
Member of the University community	Some University policies and regulations refer to students being accompanied by “a member of the University community”, for example, in the student academic appeals and student conduct processes. In these cases “member of the University community” includes current students and staff, including staff in the Edinburgh University Students’ Association and the Edinburgh University Sports Union.
Misconduct	Misconduct is where a student has not behaved appropriately. The Code of Student Conduct lists examples of student misconduct: www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/academic-services/staff/discipline/code-discipline
Mode of study	The assessment conditions that apply to full time or part-time students/the mode by which the student is studying, for example full-time full year, full-time part-year, part-time continuous or part-time intermittent.
Moderation	Moderation is a process intended to assure that an assessment outcome is fair and reliable, that assessment criteria have been applied consistently, and that any differences in academic judgement between individual markers can be acknowledged and addressed. Moderation occurs before External Examiners review the operation of the marking and internal moderation process. Forms of moderation include sampled second marking, double-marking, and checking the operation of computer-based assessment.

Return to Top

-N-

Term	Definition
Named certificate and diploma	Named certificates and diplomas are those with a specific title other than the Undergraduate Certificate of Higher Education or Undergraduate Diploma of Higher Education. Examples include the Postgraduate Certificate in Counselling Studies, the Diploma in Pain Management, and the Diploma in High Performance Computing.
Non-Examining Chair	A non-examining chair is the convener of a Board of Examiners who ensures that due process is carried out by the examiners whilst not taking an active part in the examination itself.

Normal year taken	The year of study in which a course is normally taken by full-time students.
Null sit	If an assessment is recorded as “null-sit” by a Board of Examiners then it does not count as an assessment attempt and therefore does not contribute to the maximum number of permitted assessment attempts.

Return to Top

-O-

Term	Definition
On-campus learning	Refers to those courses or programmes which are designed to be studied by students physically attending the University, unless such physical attendance is not required for short periods.
Open book examination	In these examinations students are permitted to have access to specific material which is approved by the School.
Oral assessment	An assessment judgement is made based on the student’s verbal contribution. It can include a variety of activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • students making presentations which are part of the assessment of a course; • student participation in tutorials; • specific skills which are assessed orally, e.g. in languages; • a viva voce examination.
Other teaching time	This is the number of hours per week that a student will be required to undertake formal activities other than direct teaching (directed learning and independent learning). This might include labs and other workshops.

Return to Top

-P-

Term	Definition
Part-time student	There are a number of different definitions of “part-time student” across the sector. The Scottish Funding Council (SFC) defines part-time as a “short full-time course with an overall course length of 24 weeks or less”. The SFC then further defines part-time in relation to “structured” or “non-structured” programmes of study.
Personal Tutor	Undergraduate and postgraduate taught students have a Personal Tutor, a member of the academic staff who provides academic guidance and support.

Placement	A period of vocational, industrial or academic experience, which may be paid or unpaid, where the placement forms part of the student's award. The individual remains a student of the university while on the placement.
Portfolio	A collection of previous work containing a significant amount of material worthy of publication or public presentation submitted by an applicant as part of the evidence required to assess the quality of the application for undergraduate or postgraduate study.
Pre-requisite	A pre-requisite to "Course X" is a course that must be successfully completed before the student can undertake "Course X".
Prescribed period of study	This defines the period during which a student is expected to complete their taught or supervised studies. Following completion of the prescribed period of study, doctoral and MPhil students are given a period of time to write up their research and submit a thesis before the maximum period of study is reached. It follows that for non-doctoral or non-MPhil students the maximum end date of study and the end date of the prescribed period of study are the same date.
Principal Supervisor	The person primarily responsible for giving the research student help and advice to obtain good training in research, choosing a topic of appropriate scope and significance, organising the research, composing a thesis that meets the University's expectations, and submitting it in the appropriate timescale. See also " Assistant Supervisor ", " Co-Supervisor ", " Lead Co-Supervisor ".
Programme of study	The sum of all the elements leading to a defined graduating curriculum. The undergraduate Certificate and Diploma of Higher Education are not defined graduating curricula and therefore are not programmes of study. See relevant Degree Programme Table at www.drps.ed.ac.uk/
Prohibited combination	Courses with a substantial overlap in subject content that cannot be counted together in a qualifying curriculum.

Return to Top

-R-

Term	Definition
Reasonable adjustments	These inform staff about what support is recommended for students in lectures and in exams, e.g. permission to record lectures, extra time in exams etc. The reasonable adjustments recommended for an individual student are recorded in the student's Schedule of Adjustments.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)	The Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) defines Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) as the process for recognising learning that has its source in experience and/or previous formal, non-formal and informal learning contexts. This includes knowledge and skills gained within School, College and University and outside formal learning situations such as through life and work experiences. All applications for RPL at the University must be supported by evidence that the applicant's prior learning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • is closely similar in content to the course(s) from which exemption is sought; • is at the same SCQF academic level as the course(s) from which exemption is sought; • is sufficiently recent that the student's knowledge remains active and up to date; • has been undertaken at other universities or institutions of comparable standing.
Registration	The student accepts the University's terms and conditions, and confirms their personal details, and reviews their study details. The student must also make arrangements for the payment of fees if they have not done so already. Completion of the registration process is only one of the components required for full matriculation at the University.
Requirements	This indicates whether a course has any requirements for entry, such as pre-requisites, co-requisites, or prohibited combinations.
Result	The overall outcome for the course, expressed as 'Pass' (and type of pass), 'Fail' or 'Absent'.

Return to Top

-S-

Term	Definition
Schedule of courses	A list of all courses offered by a School. Each Schedule has been assigned a letter to allow cross-referencing from individual Degree Programme Tables. Each Schedule is sub-divided into Subject Areas.
SCQF	The Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (see www.scqf.org.uk/ for more information)
Self-plagiarism	Where a student re-uses material verbatim in different submissions for assessment without proper acknowledgement, whether on the same course or on a different course
Senior honours	The second Honours year of an Honours degree programme, normally involving courses at Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) level 10 or 11.

Special arrangements	In some cases courses may have specific requirements for entry that are not covered by the pre-requisites, co-requisites, prohibited combinations or costs. In such cases, this section of the course description describes these arrangements.
Special circumstances	Special circumstances are circumstances which are exceptional for the individual student, are beyond that student's control and for which there is sufficient evidence to show that they had a significant adverse impact on the student's performance in an assessment, or resulted in non-attendance or a non-submission for a scheduled assessment. www.ed.ac.uk/files/atoms/files/special_circumstances.pdf
Start date	The formal date by which a student is deemed to have commenced their programme of study. For postgraduate students this will always be the first day of the month. For undergraduate students this will usually be the first day of semester 1 or semester 2.
Student	A student is someone who has been admitted to the University to study for academic credit at Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF www.scqf.org.uk/) level 7 or above and has commenced the matriculation process and has not otherwise exited the University (through successful completion, withdrawal or exclusion). Successful completion of studies occurs when the student has no further study to perform, and this precedes graduation.
Student Support Officer	A member of professional services staff in the Student Support Team in Schools or services who provides support for students with issues related to their studies at the University.
Subject area	Heading used in the School schedules to group courses into disciplinary sub-divisions or other groupings that facilitate reference from the Degree Programme Tables (DPTs).
Submission period	Doctoral and MPhil students are given an additional 12 month period at the end of the prescribed period of study, called the submission period, also referred to as writing up period. During this period, the student collates the finalised research work ready for submission, the research study having been completed by the end of the prescribed period of study. The student's supervisor maintains pastoral and general academic interest during the submission period, but research supervision should have been completed.
Summative assessment	This measures the level of attainment by a student in the programme of study.
Supervisor	See definitions for " Principal Supervisor ", " Co Supervisor ", " Lead Co-Supervisor " and " Assistant Supervisor ".
Suspension	Students may be required to temporarily suspend their studies and activities on grounds of misconduct or to prevent danger to themselves or others. This can be a total or selective restriction on attending the University or accessing its facilities or participating in university activities.

	Students may request to temporarily suspend their studies: this is called interruption of studies.
Synoptic assessment	This requires students to make and use connections within and between different areas of their study, demonstrating and applying their knowledge and understanding.

Return to Top

Term	Definition
Take home examination	An examination which is given to students for them to complete and submit within a specified period of time. A take home exam does not need to be sat under invigilated conditions. The exam can be issued to students using a variety of methods, e.g. email, direction to an online webpage, handed out on paper.
Teaching block of course	Each semester is divided into two blocks: block 1 and 2 in semester 1 and blocks 3 and 4 in semester 2. Block 5 is the period beyond the end of semester 2 (see "Delivery period of a course").
Thesis	A document submitted in support of candidature for an academic degree or professional qualification presenting the author's research and findings.

Return to Top

-U-

Unit of assessment	A unit of assessment is a component of a course which is considered by a Board of Examiners as a discrete entity in reaching its final mark for the course or its progression or award decision. Examples include an essay, an exam paper, questions within an exam paper, etc.
---------------------------	---

Return to Top

-V-

Term	Definition
Viva Voce	An oral examination that assesses the student's general knowledge of the field of research; establishes the extent of any collaboration; ascertains that the student can work independently and lead the work of others; and confirms that the work is the student's own.

Return to Top

-W-

Term	Definition
Welcome Week	The week before the start of teaching in Semester 1 of the academic year. A variety of events to orient and welcome new students are available. The orientation helps new students to organise their classes, acclimatise to student life, and introduce themselves to other students.
Withdrawal	The student's action by which they voluntarily choose to leave the University. After withdrawal, the individual is no longer entitled to access University resources.
Writing up period	See "submission period".
